Chapter 1 — Your Current Officeholders

Worksheet

Free practice material — not affiliated with USCIS. This worksheet prints NO names on purpose: officeholder answers change with elections and appointments, and any printed name goes stale. You write the current answers yourself, from the official sources, and re-check them the week before your interview.

§1 How to Use This Page

Some civics answers name the people in office NOW — USCIS scores what is true on the day of YOUR interview. Fill in each line in pencil from the sources listed. Re-check: (1) the week before your interview, (2) after ANY election, (3) after any appointment or vacancy in the news. The official answers page is uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates — check it first. Date last checked: _____

§2 Federal Officeholders

President of the United States now (2008 test Q28 — on BOTH 65/20 senior lists): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates and whitehouse.gov.

Vice President of the United States now (2008 test Q29 — on the 2025 senior list): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates and whitehouse.gov.

Political party of the President now (2008 test Q46): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates.

Speaker of the House of Representatives now (2008 test Q47 — on the 2025 senior list): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates and house.gov.

Chief Justice of the United States now (2008 test Q40): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates and supremecourt.gov.

Number of justices on the Supreme Court (2008 test Q39): _____ — verify: uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates.

§3 Your State and District

These answers depend on WHERE YOU LIVE, and the people change too — the double trap. Write your state: _____

Governor of your state now (2008 test Q43 — on the 2025 senior list): _____ — verify: your state's official governor website.

Capital of your state (2008 test Q44 — 65/20 senior list; the place does not change, but write yours): _____

Your state's TWO U.S. Senators now (2008 test Q20 — 65/20 senior list): 1) _____ 2) _____ — verify: senate.gov.

Your U.S. Representative now (2008 test Q23): _____ — verify: house.gov ("Find Your Representative" by ZIP code).

§4 The Week-Before Ritual

Seven days out: open uscis.gov/citizenship/testupdates and confirm every federal line, then your state's sites for §3. Say each answer OUT LOUD in English — the officer hears pronunciation, not handwriting. Both test tracks (2008 and 2025 — your N-400 filing date decides) ask current-officeholder questions, so this page serves every applicant. Never trust a printed name, in any book. The source is the office, not the book.
